LITTLE BOOTS RODEO RELEASE FORM

This is to certify that (we) (I), individually and as parent(s)/legal guardian(s)/legal representative(s) of the minor listed below do hereby release Justalil' Rodeo Company, the Pike County Cattlemen Park, and Little Boots Rodeo volunteers or any of their agents, successors or assigns, from all liability, claims or demands for any and all injuries or damages to person or personal property, including but not limited to any and all livestock used in competition by said minor(s) arising or which may arise from any accidents which may occur while said minor is participating in or attending any events hosted by the said Justalil' Rodeo Company, during the Little Boots Rodeo at the Pike County Cattlemen Park. The substantive intent of this release is to include identical provisions for liability release for adults accompanying the above-named minor(s) as those for the minor themselves.

By signature below (I) (we) certify (I) (we) are the legal custodians of the above child and have authority to permit the child to participate in Little Boots Rodeo. Furthermore, (I) (we) understand and agree with the rules and regulations below and acknowledge any false information provided herein may result in denial of the child's participation and/or legal ramifications.

Initial each rule:

- (I) (we) must be on the premises of the Pike County Cattlemen Park at all times closely supervising my child(ren). Failure to do so will result in disqualification of the child, and individuals leaving the premises with no money refunded.
- The management of the Justalil' Rodeo Company, Little Boots Rodeo, or the Pike County Cattlemen Park reserves the right to excuse persons for conduct distracting to the enjoyment by others in attendance.
- All pictures (that may include my child) taken by the rodeo photographer will become the property of Justalil Rodeo Company and the Little Boots Rodeo for advertisement, rodeo website or rodeo promotion.
- If it rains on rodeo day, the rodeo will continue. Lightening will cause a delay and the rodeo will resume as soon as it is safe to do so.
- No refunds will be made under any circumstances.
- My child(ren) are covered by a personal or family medical insurance policy, and I may be required to show proof of the said insurance.
- If a horse breaks a pattern and/or barrier, no second try will be given. The contestant will be awarded a score of "zero" and exit the arena immediately. (Contestant will receive 2 points toward all-around award for an attempt/try).
- All participants must be able to perform the requirements of the event without adult assistance. No lead lines in any event including the Grand Entry.
- Birth certificates copies are required on children ages 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16. A copy of the birth certificate must be attached to the pre-registration form. If no copy is provided, a copy must be produced at final registration or the contestant will not be allowed to enter the event and no money refunded.
- No horses will be allowed in the vendor area (mounted or un-mounted).
- Horses may not be left unattended unless they are securely tethered to a trailer.
- Horses, riders, and contestants may not be in the alley leading into the arena unless they have been called for an upcoming event.
- Only rodeo personnel will be allowed in the arena with the participants. Parents or guardians will be allowed in certain areas at the discretion of rodeo personnel.
- The registration booth closes at 8:30 AM rodeo day. No new registration or changes will be allowed after that time.
- All contestants are responsible for reporting to the arena at the appointed time for the events they are registered in. If a contestant fails to report at the appointed time, the announcer or arena director will give him/her three (3) calls. After the 3rd call, the contestant will be scratched from that event as a "no show."
- Contestants will not be allowed to compete without a back number or rough stock bracelet.
- No dogs or other pets aside from horses are allowed at Pike County Cattlemen Park for safety reasons.
- Exhibition runs/rides registration will be permitted on rodeo day if the event is not full. Exhibition rides will not count toward

All-Around Awards. The first ride horse will be the one acquiring points for All-Around Awards.
(See www.littlebootsrode.net for complete rules.)
